Devastating Loss for Northwest Territories Power Corporation NTPC Family Grieves the Loss of Employee

October 6, 2011, Yellowknife – It is with great sadness that the Northwest Territories Power Corporation confirms the loss of our friend and colleague Tim Harris as a result of the October 4, 2011 Air Tindi crash near Lutsel K'e.

Mr. Harris, a Power Line Manager based out of Yellowknife was on business travel for the Corporation at the time of his passing. Tim had been with the Corporation for three years and was well known and respected throughout the Northern community.

Our condolences and support go out to Tim's family and the employees of the Northwest Territories Power Corporation as we all find the strength to face this difficult time.
